Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday - 19 February 1959

Betty Goetz telephoned and advised that the Senate Disarmament Subcommittee would not require [] to appear as scheduled on the 25th of February. She also indicated that Senator Humphrey was considerably disturbed at the basic problem of receiving testimony in executive session which could not be released to place against the many published reports which contain a considerable number of inaccuracies as to various facts. [] has been advised. 25X1
